Policy
Policies, attendance, submissions and regulations	Student Work Submissions: All student works must be submitted on time (at the end of internship period) and in both hard and digital format in order to be considered for full credit. Late submissions: Work not submitted by the due date, except with valid prior notification and/or substantiation, is a late work and will not be accepted for a full grade. Submission of work that past the due date will result in a reduction of 20% of full grade for each day (24 hour) late. Students portfolios that are not fully completed nor submitted on time will receive "0" for the final grade. Attendance: Attendance is mandatory and very important for your progress. Each unexcused absence will result in a reduction of the attendance grade from the final grade for the course. If you have a university excused absence and are unable to turn in your completed work, you must consult with your instructor and turn in all work completed up to that time to be eligible for an extension on your assignment. University Email: The school uses the University email system to contact students. It is imperative that you check your email regularly and keep up to date with any new announcements. Questions, Concerns, and Issues in the Workplace: Should you encounter issues or have questions regarding your internship, please communicate with the Internship Coordinator immediately.
