Policy
CLINIC LAB	Due to the progressive nature of this course, its importance to future clinical courses and the difficulty in duplicating lab/clinic exercises, attendance at all clinic labs is required. Should an absence be necessary, please contact course instructor immediately. Work missed must be made up in extra lab/clinic sessions. Students are responsible for scheduling lab time with the instructor and arranging for lab partner/patient. Make-up must be requested in writing. Final decisions to make up sessions will be at the discretion of the Director of clinical Affairs.
Plagiarism	All academic work submitted to you to fulfill a course requirement is expected to be the result of your own thought, research, and self-expression. You will have committed plagiarism if you reproduce someone else/s work without acknowledging its source. Examples of sources which must be acknowledged includes: published articles, chapters of books, computer programs, graphic representations, research papers and any other kinds of work from a source not so generated as to be part of public domain.
Professional Conduct:	Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner. Failure to do so will result in a one-point grade deduction from the final clinic grade for each occurrence

Attendance	Due to the unique responsibilities and accountabilities associated with becoming a competent professional provider of health care, the progressive nature of the curriculum, the legal issues associated with providing patient/client care, the provision of quality health services and future employability, attendance and class participation are required
