ENG115 Critical Reading - JNQF Level: 7

Second Semester 2023-2024

Course Catalog

3 Credit Hours. This course will prepare students to read and think critically in college courses across the curriculum with concentration on academic level text on various, political, philosophical, and linguistic readings. Those texts are directed towards the general educated reader. Through a systematic, comprehensive program of instruction and guided practice, students will learn to recognize text structures, build specialized academic literacy, develop strategies for reading difficult texts, enhance vocabulary, and respond critically, orally and verbally, to what they have read.

Teaching Method: On Campus
