ENG243 World Literature

First Semester 2022-2023

Course Catalog

3 Credit Hours. A study of representative works of world literature from Antiquity, the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, and modernism. The course emphasizes the study and consideration of the literary, cultural, and human significance of selected great works of the Western and non-Western literary traditions. An important goal of the class is to promote an understanding of the works in their cultural/historical contexts and of the enduring human values which unite the different literary traditions.
