

A. Enter the link <https://services.just.edu.jo/applic>, and after taking steps 1-7, an email will be sent to the entered email containing the activation link and account information

B. After entering the e-mail and clicking on the activation link, the student can access the file through the e-mail and the password as shown in step No (8).

C. Enters and saves all the required data.

D. Pay the application fee for enrollment in (any branches of Cairo Amman Bank in the Kingdom, visa card, eFAWATERcom service if the fees is in dinars) to obtain the application receipt for the programs and specializations available to him which he can view through the inquiry tab - available specialties .

E. After obtaining the financial receipt, the student can apply through the applications - then choose the program - enter the financial receipt number - choose the major - then approve the application.

Director of the Admission and Academic Documents Department (Eyad Malkawi)